R. Jack Smith reported that a briefing of Dan Fink of DDR&E on Soviet military expenditures had been well received and this briefing will subsequently be given to several officials in the Pentagon. Prior to those briefings, the DCI will be briefed. He also noted that a memorandum had been prepared for Rostow on Sino/Soviet border tensions and the DCI agreed that this would be an interesting item for forwarding to the members of the SIG.

Godfrey noted the sensational headline in the Baltimore Sun today regarding Ulbricht. The implications were greatly exaggerated. FitzGerald noted that the DDP had furnished OCI with several reports on Sihanouk during the previous evening.

Kent noted receipt of a request from Alain Enthoven for an NIE on the reliability of satellite armies to the USSR in the event of war.

Bannerman noted the article in the Washington Post on CIA recruiting in U.S. universities and colleges.

Earman reported that during the conduct of a survey of the Office of Security, it became apparent that many universities and colleges will make available students' grades to recruiters only with the former's consent.

Houston noted the reproduction of 400 copies of the New York Times articles on CIA. It was agreed that the cover sheet would be removed prior to their dispatch to overseas stations.

FitzGerald gave his views on the Agency's use of universities for contracts.

The DDCI reported on his meeting with Acheson yesterday concerning NATO.

The DCI noted that Mr. McCone will be in the Agency tomorrow morning for briefings.
